

BURGLARS FEAST DURING ROUND-UP OF JERSEY TOWN

Leisurely Loot Four Residences at Riverdale, Eating as They Work.

The little township of Riverdale, N. J., is greatly excited today over the visit last night of a gang of burglars who left a trace of their presence in four of the finest dwellings, in which they forced an entrance and looted, taking many valuables.

The town authorities believe that the burglars were perpetrated by the same band that had been operating for weeks through Tonawanda, Creekville, Leonia, Ridgewood and other New Jersey towns. Three of the homes entered were those of business men of this city. They were: L. W. Prentice, proprietor of a printing establishment at No. 37 Murray street; Col. E. A. Havers, dealer in photo supplies at No. 83 Nassau street; and Julius Kessler, head of a distilling firm with offices at No. 63 Park Row. The other looted residence was that of Charles Perry, the mail carrier of Riverdale.

The last named suffered the heaviest loss. Several pieces of jewelry and $350 in cash were taken from Mr. Perry's home. At all of the other residences the lower floors were ransacked for valuables and losses were incurred. The robbers worked quietly and confined their operations in each building to the first floor. The sleeping apartments were not entered. No one in the town knew of their presence until the occupants of the dwellings entered awake to-day.

That the burglars worked leisurely and without fear there is no doubt, as the remains of what were two roast chickens were found on a table in the kitchen of Mr. Prentice's home. It was very evident that they had enjoyed a quiet feast. Every room and closet on the first floor of the Prentice home was entered and searched for valuables.

Four-year-old Eddie's bank, containing several dollars in nickels and pennies, was not overlooked. In addition to some articles of jewelry being missing at the residence of Col. Havers, the burglars paused long enough to smoke some of his best cigars. At the home of Mr. Kessler, however, they had only time to open a bottle of wine, when they were scared away by one of the three Boston terriers.

Stefan Brewster, of Bergen County, and his constables are investigating the robberies and is making a search of the locality for the burglars.

Promised Them Jobs as Special Policemen in the McAdoo Tunnel.

When Detectives Casassa, Gegan and Wilbur took Henry Mews, a smooth-shaven, ministerial looking German, to Police Headquarters to-day Inspector McCafferty counted up fifty complaints against him received to date. He expects to receive fifty more within a few days.

Mews for months has been preying

"No Washboilers to Sell," Says Anty Drudge.

Rag Man—"Ole rags! Gum Boots! Tinware!"
Anty Drudge—"Goodness! Where'd you get all them washboilers?"

Rag Man—"I buya dem from voomans. Dey sava no use any more. You gotta von to sell?"

Anty Drudge—"No, sir. I have not used one for many a year. It didn't take the women of this town long to get rid of their washboilers after I came and told them how to wash with Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water. No more boiling clothes for them I see."

Are you governed by habits?
Not a bad thing if they are good habits.
Not a good thing if they are bad habits.
Are you in the habit of getting up before daybreak to start washing so that you'll be through before night?

If you are it's a habit to get rid of right away. There's no necessity for it.

Get rid of the old-fashioned boiling, and scalding clothes, back-breaking washboard-rubbing habit and adopt the easy Fels-Naptha way.

Strike off the chains that bind you to the washboiler and washboard. Be a progressive woman.

Follow directions on the inside of the red and green Fels-Naptha wrapper.
